RE: DECISION OF THE COMPLIANCE REVIEW COMMISSION RELATING TO THE CHALLENGE OF THE ENDORSING CAUCUS RESULTS FOR CD 17

INTRODUCTION:

On February 27, an endorsing caucus was held for Congressional District 17. The results of that conference were 46 votes for Mike Honda, 7 for Ro Khanna, and 2 for No Endorsement. Candidate Honda received 83.6 percent of the vote and was placed on the consent calendar.

An initial written challenge was filed by Brian Parvizshahi on February 27, 2016.

DOCUMENTS RECEIVED AND REVIEWED

Documents received and reviewed by the CRC were the following:

1. Email by Brian Parvizshahi received on February 27, 2016.

The complaint was three fold:
- Illegal to have placed propaganda on the seats
- Illegal how the ballots were distributed where the names didn't match the voters
- Where proxies were voting for folks who were not the actual delegates.

ORDER:

Based upon the above facts and the Bylaws of the CDP, the CRC makes the following Orders:

1) The CRC finds Candidate Khanna failed to exhaust all his remedies at the time of the meeting and the final election results shall stand, and Candidate Honda’s name shall remain on the consent calendar.

2) The CRC would like to note even if the challenges were valid the results would not have changed in any way.

Respectfully submitted by a 6-0 vote of the members of the CRC:
