RE: DECISION OF THE COMPLIANCE REVIEW COMMISSION (CRC) RELATING TO A CHALLENGE FILED BY MR. HARAMI

INTRODUCTION:

On November 26, 2018, Mr. Brandon Harami, a Democratic State Central Committee (DSCC) Member, submitted a challenge concerning First Vice Chair Alex Gallardo-Rooker alleging a lack of disclosure of “$30,000 in consulting earnings” received from the No on Proposition 8 Campaign. Mr. Harami requests the CRC require Ms. Gallardo-Rooker to: return the $30,000, write a formal letter of apology to the DSCC members, and be suspended from leadership.

DOCUMENTS INITIALLY RECEIVED AND REVIEWED:

Documents received and reviewed by the CRC associated with the challenge included the following:

1. Challenge by Mr. Harami submitted on November 26, 2018

TIMELINESS AND JURISDICTION:

According to CDP Bylaws, Article XII, Section 4:

“All challenges must be commenced by the filing of a written challenge with the Secretary of This Committee, with copies served on the Chair of This Committee, as well as the appointing person, and the chair of the relevant organization, where applicable no later than seven (7) calendar days after the alleged violation occurred. Upon a showing of good cause, sustained by unanimous vote, the Compliance Review Commission may waive this requirement.”

(All By-Law references are to the California Democratic Party Bylaws, as amended through November 2018, unless otherwise indicated.)

The challenge filed by Mr. Harami was officially submitted on November 26, 2018, which was not within seven (7) calendar days after the alleged violation occurred thus the challenge is not timely. As there was no "showing of good cause" provided, the CRC did not waive this requirement.
STANDING:

According to Article XII, Section 3:

“Any party to a challenge must be adversely affected to bring the challenge.”

Standing did not have to be determined as the challenge was not timely.

JURISDICTION

Article XII, Section 2a states:

“The Compliance Review Commission shall have initial jurisdiction over all challenges and/or appeals arising under these Bylaws.”

Jurisdiction did not have to be determined as the challenge was not timely.

ORDER:

Based upon the above facts and Bylaws of the CDP, the CRC makes the following Orders:

1) The CRC denies the challenge as it was not timely and no good cause was provided to waive the seven (7) day requirement.

Appeal of this order, if any, must be filed with the CDP Secretary, with copies to the Chair of the CDP State Central Committee, within twelve days of the date of this decision. (Article XII, section 6(a).) Thus, any appeal must be filed on or before December 11, 2018 with the Sacramento office of the California Democratic Party, and shall be an appeal to the next meeting of CDP Rules Committee upon conclusion of the response period.

Please note that per CDP Bylaws, Article XII, Section 7b, the filing of an appeal shall not stay any decision of the CRC. Parties may additionally respond in person, if so desired, provided there has been a timely filing of an appeal and notice of intent to testify is provided in writing to the Lead Chair of the Rules Committee by 5 PM on December 23, 2018, at the Sacramento office of the California Democratic Party. The Rules Committee may accept such additional testimony, written or oral, considering the nature and import thereof, as well as the time available for its proper consideration, as it deems appropriate, in its discretion.

Accordingly, this decision is so ordered, and is in effect, unless, and until, a successful appeal is made, decided, and contrary orders made whether by the CRC, or by the Rules Committee. CRC shall retain jurisdiction up until the time of an appeal, if any, is heard by the Rules Committee.

Respectfully submitted by a 6-0 vote of the members of the CRC,

Kathy Bowler, Co-Chair, Rules Committee
Coby King, Co-Chair, Rules Committee
Lara Larramendi, Co-Lead Chair, Credentials Committee
Garry S. Shay, Lead Chair, Rules Committee
Keith Umemoto, Co-Chair, Credentials Committee
Michael Wagaman, Lead Chair, Credentials Committee
